Nevada's Indian Territory

NEWE Western Shoshone Tour

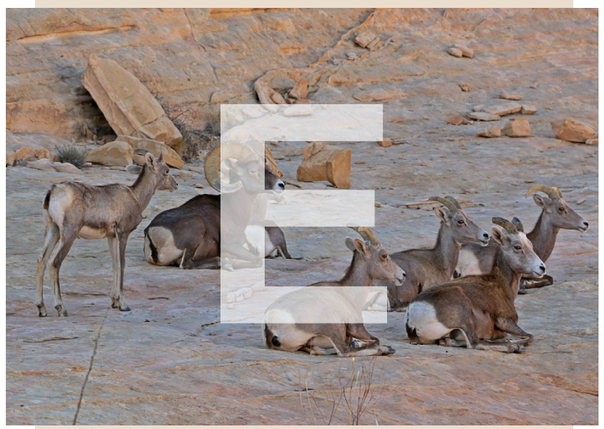
"Changing the world through eco-cultural tourism of the Great Basin"

Homelands of the Newe (Western Shoshone)

- Timbisha-Shoshone homelands (Death Valley National Park)
- Great Basin National Park and Schell Creek Range
- Ruby, Jarbridge and Goshute Mountains Wilderness
- Humboldt Toiyabe National Forest
- South Fork and Wildhorse Reservoirs
- Sheep Creek, Mounatin View, and Billy Shaw Reservoirs

Guiding Principles: The branding motto, The NEWE Pledge

1. Native American destination planning and marketing authentic indigenous tourism and sustainable eco-cultural tourism
2. Experiences and meaningful opportunities to be stewards of "Mother Earth" and protect the Great Basin biodiversity
3. Wellness and transformative experiences through responsible and inclusive indigenous tourism (healthy land and healthy people)
4. Experiencing Newe cultural awareness while improving quality of life and cultural identity



Signature Events and Interests

- Duck Valley 4th of July Powwow and Rodeo
- Elko Band Powwow
- Confederated Tribes of Goshute Powwow
- Ely Shoshone Powwow and Fandango
- Duckwater Annual Festival/Powwow

Eco-cultural Tourism Opportunities

Wilderness exploring, wellness hot springs, petroglyph trails, over-landing, endless dark skies, aspen fall color change, world-class hunting and fishing, amazing outdoor recreation, and photography opportunities

"Explore Native Nevada" Navigation App

DESTINATION NATIVE AMERICA

TRAVEL NEVADA

Photos by Outdoor Adventures
Design by CharterAdvertising.com

For the Newe Tour, scan this code or visit NevadasIndianTeritory.com