Nevada's Indian Territory

NUMU
Northern Paiute Tour

"Changing the world through eco-cultural tourism of the Great Basin"

Homelands of the Numu (Northern Paiute)

- Pyramid Lake, Walker Lake, Mono Lake
- Mason Valley and Walker River Basin
- Black Rock Desert and Summit Lake
- Santa Rosa Mountain Range
- Sheldon National Wildlife Refuge
- Stillwater National Wildlife Refuge

Guiding Principles: The branding motto, The NUMU Pledge

1. Native American destination planning and marketing authentic indigenous tourism and sustainable eco-cultural tourism
2. Useful and meaningful opportunities to be stewards of "Mother Earth" and protect the Great Basin biodiversity
3. Meaningful awareness of Numu Culture while improving quality of life and respecting cultural identity
4. Understanding indigenous wellness and transformative experiences through responsible and inclusive tourism (healthy land and healthy people)

Signature Events and Interests

- Numaga Days
- Pine Nut Festival
- Sacred Visions Powwow
- Pyramid Lake Paiute Tribe Museum and Visitor Center

Eco-cultural Tourism Opportunities

World-Class trout fishing, Great Basin wildlife watching, majestic dark skies, over-landing, hot springs wellness, abundant cultural sites, and amazing outdoor recreation.

"Explore Native Nevada" Navigation App

DESTINATION NATIVE AMERICA

TRAVEL NEVADA

Photos by Outdoor Adventures
Design by CharterAdvertising.com

For the Numu Tour, scan this code or visit NevadasIndianTeritory.com