NEVADA'S
INDIAN TERRITORY

Waší·šiw Dáʔawʔága
Lake Tahoe Shoreline Tour

"Changing the world through eco-cultural tourism of the Great Basin"

Waší·šiw ʔitdéʔ
(Homelands of the Washoe People)

- Dáʔawʔágaʔ (Lake Tahoe Shoreline)
- Lake Tahoe Basin Management Unit
- Humboldt Toiyabe National Forest
- Carson Valley and Truckee Meadows
- Pine Nut Mountain Range
- Washoe Valley and Washoe Lake

Guiding Principles:
The branding motto, The DáʔawPledge

1. Destination planning and marketing authentic indigenous tourism and sustainable eco-cultural tourism
2. Awareness of Waší·šiw Culture while improving quality of life and respecting cultural identity
3. Acknowledge to be stewards of "Mother Earth" and protect the Great Basin biodiversity
4. Wellness and transformative experiences through responsible and inclusive tourism (healthy land and healthy people)

Signature Events and Interests

- Meeks Bay Resort
- Waší·šiw ʔitdéʔ (Indigenous Culture and Arts Festival)
- USFS Taylor Creek Visitors Center trilingual audio tour
- Washoe Tribe "Story Walk" experience on Tahoe Rim Trail
- Washoe Tribe's Sawmill—supporting and sustaining healthy forests
- Wa She Shu Travel Plaza
- Carson Smoke Shop & Mica Chevron

Eco-cultural Tourism Opportunities

To learn more about the Waší·šiw (Washoe People) culture and economic development visit washoetribe.us.

Click on the QR code to watch the Dáʔawʔágaʔ (Lake Tahoe Shoreline) responsible tourism video.

"Explore Native Nevada" Navigation App

DESTINATION NATIVE AMERICA

TRAVEL NEVADA

Photos by Outdoor Adventures
Design by CharterAdvertising.com

For the Waší·šiw Tour, scan this code or visit NevadasIndianTeritory.com